Members participate in the union by:

- attending union training programs

- volunteering with committees
- lobbying and advocating for worker rights
- participating in decision-making forums

- supporting campaigns to unionize workers

AND MUCH MORE!

Together, we strive to achieve workplace justice. We work together with community partners for fairness. We want a better future for all.

I AM A UNION MEMBER!

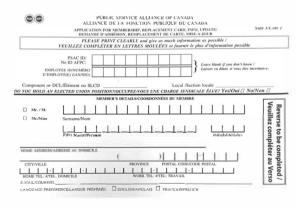

Welcome to the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC)! We want you to be well informed about how your union can help you in your workplace and how you can participate in your union.

Your union is made strong by its members. That means you! PSAC is one of Canada's largest unions, representing over 200,000 members nationally, with over 16,500 members in the North. We support members to achieve better pay, safe working conditions, fair treatment and respect in the workplace.

By being employed at a unionized workplace you already receive many of the benefits negotiated by your union over the years such as paid leave, working conditions, etc.

To formally join PSAC as a full member, you need to sign a union card (pictured above). You'll be able to attend conferences and conventions, participate in educational courses, vote and run in Local elections, and much more! Contact us to get your card.

Members drive the union

Every three years, elected members meet in regional and national conventions to establish policies that guide the union, allocate financial resources and elect union officers.

Where do I go if I have questions about my union?
